Patio blocks dispute may lead to jury trial

A decision on whether a jury trial will be conducted on eviction proceedings against two tenants of the Royal Village Trailer Park is to be handed down this week by 34th District Court Judge James B. Stone in Romulus.

The proceedings were initiated against Mr. and Mrs. James Smith, 6069 Pan Am; and Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Rushing, nearby neighbors at the Royal Village Trailer Park, located on Van Born Rd., between Inkster and Middlebelt roads, Romulus. The tenants are members of the Michigan Mobiles Homes Association whose attorney Robert E. Greenstein is representing them.

Mayor satisfied with new budget

The total over all budget for the city amounts $6,062,885. Last year's budget, which did not include local streets and major roads maintenance, totaled $3,642,451.

The city's operating budget for the last fiscal year (1970-71) was $1,570,460.

City asked to join parade

Councilmen voting against the budget as revised were James C. Stewart, William M. Oakley and Ellis T. Pennington. Those voting in favor were Council President Jimmie Raspberry, Fred Junior Block, Edmund Bizek and Brooker R. Edwards, who had made the motion to approve. He was supported by Bizek.

The City of Romulus has been invited to participate in the golden anniversary of the City of River Rouge, to be observed Sept. 3, Mayor Hyle J. Carmichael reported to city council.

A highlight of the anniversary celebration will be a parade, and Romulus was asked to enter it.

PARADE PARTICIPANTS - One way to enjoy a parade is to be part of it. And that is what these three unidentified youngsters are doing. Their small cart was being pulled by one of the tractors in the annual Romulus Jaycees' Homecoming Parade and Festival. The parade on June 2 opened a week-long observance of the annual event.

Record number honored

Fourteen young men will graduate with honors this year from Romulus Senior High School, the highest number of male honor graduates in recent years.

For the first time in the history of the district a man will be class salutatorian.

There will also be 23 young

Hospital plans moving ahead

In other action, the board approved a resolution granting permission for husbands to be present in the delivery room during childbirth, if written approval is obtained from the wife and doctor in charge and a release signed. The resolution is effective, however, only in Seaway and Beyer Hospitals.

Annapolis and Outer Drive Hospitals still will prohibit the presence of husbands in the delivery room.

According to Dr. Karl S. Klicka, PCHA director, the reason for the change of rules is the repeated requests by young couples that husbands be allowed to be present during childbirth. The requests have not been as frequent at the Annapolis and Outer Drive hospitals, he said.

The board of directors also authorized initiation of a total study of existing telephone systems in the four PCHA hospitals and recommendations for the telephone installation for the proposed health facility in Taylor.

The study will be handled by the firm of Shaw and Staff, Limited, of Connecticut, for a sum not exceeding $10,000.

PCHA is presently paying approximately $165,000 to Bell

Telephone per year. The board agreed with the administration that a person with no vested interest should be imported to evaluate telephone service and make money saving recommendations.

The Shaw firm apparently been successful in doing this for many hospitals, including Detroit's Sinai Hospital.

The board of directors also approved a contract for emergency service at Outer Drive Hospital.

Debate earlier this year centered on the question of emergency care billing by physicians, hired for emergency service at the PCHA hospitals.

The new contract, modeled after existing practices at Annapolis, eliminates private billing by physicians, a bone of contention among board members, and establishes a service by the hospital which charges physicians 15 per cent of his charges for a billing service.

The new system eliminates the problem of emergency care patients receiving billing from several sources. Under the contract the patient will receive one billing from a hospital.

Board member Tracy Salisbury, an Ecorse councilman, renewed efforts to force board Chairman Donald J. Pizzimenti to form a human relations committee.

The committee would investigate charges of discrimination within the hospital authority, the latest of which have been leveled by the Ecorse-River Rouge chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

Salisbury's motion, however, fell for lack of support.

Patio blocks dispute may lead to jury trial

the two park families was started by Arthur Coveyou, manager of the trailer park. According to Mrs. Marge Dixon, representative of the Michigan Mobile Home Association, the eviction notices were served on the two families following a dispute over the ownership of some patio blocks of a former trailer park tenant.

The trailer park manager was represented in court by Ronald M. Burke.

Following a conference Monday with opposing attorneys, Judge Stone stated that he would rule on the question of a jury trial this week.

According to the two tenants facing eviction, the manager accused Smith of stealing the patio blocks from a park lot after its occupant had moved his trailer out of the park. He demanded payment of $20 or eviction.

During an argument that ensued, Smith, who has one lung and is reported to be under treatment, was allegedly struck by the manager.

The Smith family called the Wayne County Sheriff's office and Smith was taken by ambulance to the Oakwood General Hospital.

The altercation occurred on April 12 and the eviction court notice was served May 27.

John Kraut, stepson of the Rushings came to the rescue of Smith during the altercation.

His intervention, the association reports, resulted in Rushing receiving an eviction notice.

According to a letter in the possession of the Smith family, the former owner of the patio blocks, Kenneth B. Hughes, gave the Smith family permission to remove the patio blocks to their own park lot.

Romulus board hopefuls give reason for race

I decided to seek this office are that: I feel we need better quality education in the school system. We need more equitable discipline. A better working relationship between parents, students and teachers. I think we should watch more closely the ways our school monies are spent."

On her qualifications for the job she said, "I am a lifelong resident of Romulus and a graduate of Romulus High School. Having gone through the school system and being active in the community affairs. I feel I have a good insight into the problems facing the board of education and ultimately the Romulus residents."

On the election issues, Mrs. Boger stated regarding the bond issue to finance a swimming pool at the high school, "I am not opposed to a swimming pool but I feel that we can not afford one at this time. The taxpayers are constantly being asked for more money and there is a limit to what they can afford."

On the bond for school building and additional classrooms, Mrs. Boger said, "I am not opposed to bonding the district for needed classrooms; however, due to the recent increase of the assessed valuation in Romulus, I seriously question the $11.5 million figure. I intend to further study and investigate this issue before making a final decision as to whether or not I will support it."

DAVID H. DELOZIER, 28, has resided in Romulus for two years. He and his wife, Darlene are parents of two children.

He attended Taylor Center High and Henry Ford Community College. He is employed by Foodmaker Inc. Investors Diversified Services.

DeLozier is active in Romulus Jaycees and currently member of the board of directors.

In seeking the short term on the school board, DeLozier said, "I am seeking the one year term on the Romulus Board of Education as I feel the citizens and students of Romulus need individuals who can think progressively and make decisions that would benefit the Romulus School System, not only now but in the future."

On his qualifications, he said, "I feel that I'm qualified for a seat on the Romulus Board of Education, because we need a progressive thinking Board of Education. I believe I can think progressively. I feel I can stay abreast of the needs of the students and youth of today".

FRANKLIN FILKINS, 29, a current appointment (January, 1971) to the school board, has lived in the Romulus Community for 23 years. He attended Romulus grade school and is a 1959 Romulus High School graduate.

He and his wife, Carol are the parents of three children. He is a substation operating engineer for the Detroit Edison Co.

He is active in the Romulus Homeowners Association, Romulus Democratic Club and the Hayti Elementary School's PTA. He served four years in the U.S. Marines from 1959 to 1963.

Commenting on his candidacy, Filkins said, "Since I have three children that my wife and I plan to raise in this community, I am very interested in school and community affairs. My activity in PTA and other parent groups, often meeting and discussing problems with the board of education, drew my attention to and stimulated my interest in seeking the office I now hold."

On his qualifications for the school board post, Filkins said, "In my opinion the basic qualifications for this position are interest in schools and better education for our children and common sense and the ability to think before making a decision that affects our children's lives or spend thousands even millions of tax dollars. These qualifications I feel I have."

Commenting on the election, Filkins added, "While I stand against the $1,125,000 bond issue for a swimming pool, I do realize the need for the new schools that the $11.5 million bond issue, which if passed, is designated for, also for repair and maintenance of our existing buildings. However I am sure there are several ways in which that amount could be reduced."

REV. ARTHUR GREGORY, 61, has been a resident of Romulus for 30 years. He is the father of four children. All are graduates of Romulus High School.

He attended Northeastern High School and Davison School, both in Detroit, the University of Michigan (extension studies) and Wayne State Cultural Center. Dr. Gregory attended United Theological Seminary, Detroit; and the American School, Chicago.

He received a Bachelor of Theology degree from the Community School of the Bible, Detroit and he is a graduate of the Industrial Institute, Chicago. Dr. Gregory has an honorary Doctor of Divinity degree. He is a theology and bible instructor.

He is a former candidate (1958) for the board of education. He is former pastor and founder of the New Kingdom Baptist Church, Detroit; and former pastor and founder of the Second Baptist Church Romulus, and director of Christian Education associated with 11 Christian Missionary Churches.

He is a chartered member of the Romulus Civic League, member of the Romulus Homeowners Association, former dean of Community School of Bible and theology teacher.

On running for the school job, Dr. Gregory said, "I feel the need on my services to the community as a whole, can and would help to bridge the educational social structure in the field of a whole education in a complex effort of full communication with a non-violent positive action, to assure peaceful solutions with law and order democratically dispensed for all students in our Romulus Community School."

On his qualifications for the school post, Dr. Gregory said, "My background and current experience in human and religious relations dealing with related problems of social structure in learning how to live better lives through better education."

In speaking on the election, he said that a major issue is "A school board with all members elected on the board to serve without inciting racial violence concerning subjects to be taught or desired to be taught and proper communication procedure for all students and parents."

CHARLES R. KLINE, 35, has been a Romulus resident for two years. He and his wife, Lucy Carole are the parents of three children.

He attended Boys High School, Brooklyn, N.Y., and the University of Arizona, Tucson, Ariz.

He is employed by the Equitable Life Assurance Society, as a representative agent for insurance programming.

He was a candidate for Romulus City treasurer last May. He is active in the American Management Association, Engineering Society of Detroit, and a Romulus Scoutmaster.

In seeking election Kline said, "In deciding to seek the four-year term, it has become increasingly apparent to me that people must begin to become informed and involved in the problems and affairs of the community in which they live."

"Recently in the city several problems have become known that basically have been lingering for many years, but each of the problems were given a temporary fix so as not to upset the cart. With my two children going to Romulus schools and eventually a third, I have begun to wonder whether the best thought, projects and methods are being employed for the benefit of the students, the parents and the taxpayers."

"Progressive thought and the ability to communicate with others, especially the young people, are becoming increasingly important. In this area of listening and evaluating, I feel that I have the ability and that the present school board members have not yet accepted this thought of what is being said by the young people, or by the entire population of the city. The elected officials for any position must decide for themselves the majority and not the minority or sporadic citizens groups that suddenly erupt, making demands."

ANDREW LOPOTA, 45, has been a resident of the Romulus area for nine years. He and wife, Mickie are the parents of three children.

He attended Monaca High School, Monaca, Pa.; Geneva College, Carnegie Tech, Pittsburgh; and Wayne State University. He is employed as a survey crew chief for the Wayne County Road Commission.

He ran for Democratic precinct delegate in 1966 and 68 and Romulus City Council in 1970. He is a member of Romulus Kiwanis Club, Romulus Homeowners Association, St. Aloysius Church of Romulus, Romulus Federal Credit Union and Romulus Democratic Club.

He is presently treasurer elect of Kiwanis and Treasurer of the credit union. He served in the military in 1945-46 and again in 1950-54.

On seeking the school board position, Lopota said, "I would like to fill the position of a trustee that would not be a 'yes man' to a one-man school board. I feel that I could truly represent the people on the school board."

On his qualifications Lopota said, "I believe that intimidation is archaic in nature. I take pride in thinking on my own two feet. It is a position that I expect no personal gain and I could serve the people with unselfish motives. I value education very highly and I feel that no one should be deprived of the right to education."

On the election issues he said, "The bond for new school building and swimming pool; with the defeat of Proposal C last fall our community possibly faces the complete shutdown of parochial schools and we must have the room to accommodate these students and increase in population of our recent influx of new Romulus families."

MRS. DOROTHY R. PHENIX, 50, has been a community resident for 16 years. She and her husband, Cecil are the parents of one child.

She attended Dunbar High School, Weirton, W. Va. She is presently employed by the University of Michigan, Mott's Children Hospital, as a secretary and clerk.

She is a member of the Citizens District Council, Romulus, and member of the Bethany Apostolic Faith Church.

She is church secretary, secretary of the Church Building Fund and Sunday School Teacher as well as president of the choir.

She is seeking the school board position, Mrs. Phenix said, "To offer a mother's views."

GORDON C. SILVEY, 35, has been a resident of Romulus for all of his life. He and wife, Shirley are the parents of five children.

He attended Romulus elementary schools and graduated from Romulus High School in 1954. He is employed by the McDonald Dairy as salesman.

He ran for constable and city council in 1970 but was not elected. He resigned from the Romulus School District Board of Canvassers to run for the school board.

Silvey is a member of the Romulus Jaycees, Romulus Chamber of Commerce and Romulus Republican Club and attends Romulus United Methodist Church.

He is chairman of the Church's administrative board and was president of the Jaycees twice in 1964- and 65, he served as Jaycee state vice president. He recently received the Jaycee International Senatorship Award.

On seeking the job, Silvey said, "It seems that there is very little interest in the school board as far as candidates are concerned. I feel the board needs some new people and new ideas."

On qualifications for the post, Silvey added, "I am a lifetime resident of the city. I have five children attending the school system and by my involvement in the affairs of the community in other areas have demonstrated that I am concerned about what is happening."

On the proposed bond issue Silvey said, "I am in favor of the bond issue even though at times it seems as though we don't need the additional funds and school expansion. However, the future of our city, state and nation depend upon the education of our children, the best that we are able to provide."

"I oppose the swimming pool proposal because I don't believe it to be essential to the education of our children."

HULEN YATES, 32, has lived in Romulus for five years. He and his wife, Dorcas are parents of six children.

He attended Lewis County High School and graduated in 1955. He is a carpenter and a member of the Carpenter's Local 19.

Yates ran for Romulus City Council in May, 1970. He is vice president of Merriman School's PTA, on the executive board of Romulus Democratic Club, and member of the Citizens Advisory Committee on Zoning.

On his election bid, Yates said, "I am not happy with the way the present school board is handling various problems and I do not think there is another good candidate in the area for the one-year term."

On his qualification Yates added, "I am very active in all phases of community activity. I attend school board meeting and know what is going on. I also am raising six children who are attending Romulus schools now or will attend in the future."

Thoughts on summer, Flag Day and voting

Only a very stodgy adult with a very short memory can fail to have a feeling of kinship with the young people of the nation now looking forward to the eminent closure of school for the summer.

There is something timeless about the joyous freedom of the first days of summer vacation.

American youngsters are doubly blessed. In spite of all the clamor and confusion about what is being done wrong in this country, we still have a great land. And millions of youngsters will see it this summer as they travel with their parents - camping, fishing or just looking.

Freedom from the discipline of the schoolroom will give millions of youngsters a chance to realize, along with their folks, that there are still wide open spaces, still plenty of blue sky and quite a few unpolluted streams and lakes, as well as mountains and forests. In thousands of communities across the country, there is the tranquility of the family backyard and, perhaps, even an old-fashioned hammock under a shade tree.

Incidentally, as we really begin to appreciate the good earth of these United States in the early days of summer, it is well to remember that Monday will be Flag Day.

A little show of patriotism never hurt anyone. Displaying our flag on appropriate occasions, such as Flag Day, is one way in which we can express our awareness of the many freedoms and privileges that we all enjoy in greater measure than most of us ever realize.

Freedom from the classroom may be short-lived, but our other freedoms, as symbolized by our flag, can be perpetual if we value them and guard them well.

Another appropriate way to celebrate Flag Day would be your practicing of one of your basic rights - voting. Monday also will be election day in the Wayne, Garden City, Inkster, Westwood, Cherry Hill and Livonia school districts.

Schools have become a multi-million dollar business that needs your careful attention. Be sure to vote.

In years gone by...

A look through The Daily Eagle files at news of Western Wayne County one, 15 and 25 years ago:

25 YEARS AGO

June 9, 1946 - This year's graduating class from Wayne High School endures the loss of several championship varsity players in football, basketball, track and baseball, who for four years have been in the keen class B competition, take leave of their earned trophies and awards to go into other fields.

The winning football team who for two years have gone undefeated, leave but two regulars to keep the victory string going true. There are several potential prospects coming up from lower classes but it will be a while before a backfield can compare with the running, throwing and kicking of Mason, Piscopink, Smith, Evans, or to match the tackles guards and ends who so successfully protected and paved paths for their backfield men.

The fact that "scientific developments have outrun the sense of moral purpose and spiritual values today," was emphasized by Rev. E. A. Britton, when he delivered the Baccalaureate sermon to a record-breaking graduating class in the Wayne High School auditorium.

"Man has learned how to be clever scientifically, but he has not yet learned to live peaceably with his neighbor," Rev. Britton said. "We have a great task to perform today and we must share in it that task is to utilize the discoveries of modern science for the common good of man."

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ferguson, Sr., celebrated their 40th wedding anniversary at their home when friends and relatives gathered to honor them.

A potluck supper was served on a table laid in white linen with a centerpiece of roses and tall taper candles.

Special team working on budget

By EDWARD E. MAHALAK,
State Representative, 38th District

I would like to begin this report on the proposed state budget and the problems facing the legislature this year.

A special team representing both parties in both houses of the legislature has been working to find solutions to Michigan's budget and revenue problems.

This legislative task force is attempting to work out tentative agreements which can be used as basic starting points in finding an answer to that state's financial difficulties.

Its most immediate problem is the impending general fund deficit for the fast-ending 1970-71 fiscal year. This deficit, despite all earlier efforts to resolve it, still is estimated at approximately 155 million.

This is a priority item since the state constitution prohibits an end-of-the-fiscal-year deficit for the state. This fiscal year ends June 30.

The budget for this year fell short because of a sharp drop in anticipated revenues plus a sharp increase in certain expenditures, particularly welfare costs.

The legislative leaders are concerned, however, with other far-ranging problems. They must determine how much money the state will spend in 1971-72 and how much of a tax increase is necessary to balance the budget for next fiscal year.

Proposed by the governor and now under consideration is a 1 per cent increase in personal state income taxes effective next January 1. He also has asked for an additional temporary income tax of 3 percent. There is some question however, as to whether these recommended increases will be adequate to cover the budget suggested by the governor's office.

The governor's budget is just short of a billion dollars but it could easily exceed that amount by the time it receives final legislative approval. There are demands for increased spending in welfare, education and other areas.

Before budget bills can be effectively moved through the legislature, there must be revenue raising measures to assure that the two will be balanced.

As the legislative year moves steadily on, the number of bills passing the house increases. One of these measures would permit employees treated by their employer's medical personnel to sue for malpractice.

Another measure would authorize counties to establish and operate centers for elderly persons. Still another bill would permit former state employees who retired before July 1, 1956, to join the state employee's retirement system.

Other house-approved bills would:

-Authorize acceptance of federal funds for school lunch programs in the state.

-Provide for the refund of excess corporation franchise fees.

-Extend the date for competition of requirements for qualified tax assessors.

-Remove the requirement of reporting on bridge inspections to the state.

-Permit special village assessments for parking lots.

-Permit county jails to be located outside of the county seal, as presently required.

The house also approved a bill sent over from the senate. It provides for comprehensive rules for occupational safety standards.

Musicians let down by local townspeople

Editor's Note: The following letter was submitted by Mrs. Jean Ward Williams, piano teacher residing in Romulus, who assisted in the preparation of a musical presentation at Romulus Senior High School Auditorium May 22.

To my friends in Romulus:

I'd like to express my thanks to all who enjoyed my presentation of the best of my music class on May 22. I think they did a good job. Some of these playing had worked six to seven weeks to be able to appear.

And I, like the students, felt "let down" by our own town and townspeople and "school personnel." Not one from the school system said, "How well you did" or "thanks." About 300 persons were in attendance, but they were from neighboring towns. The flowers from Belleville were beautiful. Not even an appearance from the local school board.

Perhaps things have changed. It's a long time since I was a young teenager, but remember one of the proudest times of my life was when I played to make money for my school and the school board head shook hands with me, one of many. I had a full heart, thankful that I had done well.

The young folks on the program got not even the interest of the Romulus folks. The young ladies even spent weeks sewing formals. Not one word was said about how grand they looked. I had tried to bring something worthy to our new auditorium. I do not believe Romulus is ready for this type program.

It was far too special to be accepted. We will remember this in the future. Many thanks to the performers who did a fine job.

Jean Ward Williams
Romulus

Faust refutes letter on deficit spending

To the Editor:

Recently your newspaper carried a "Letter to the Editor" signed by the Huron Township Citizens Committee. This letter concerned itself with the school situation in Huron and, in effect, quoted me as saying the district was in deficit financing.

Since the title of an organization is used as a signature, it is impossible for me to pinpoint when and where and how I might have conveyed such a thought. I do not recall ever being in direct contact with such an organization.

On occasion and in general discussions of the school financing crisis in the 13th senatorial district, I have cited the fact that all 12 individual school districts in my jurisdiction are forced to borrow to meet their obligations. These loans are paid back through tax anticipation notes. Technically, I suppose, one might interpret this as deficit financing, but the practice is a general one, fully accepted by every one of my school districts. To me, deficit financing occurs when obligations cannot be met by budgeted funds.

The Huron School District is not in this position. In fact, a check with the Michigan Department of Education shows the district meets every requirement of state law, and has a balanced budget for the current fiscal year.

If, in some manner or means, I, at some time, unknowingly conveyed otherwise, I am sorry. Huron has deep and complex problems that only the community itself can solve. While I am ready and willing to help in any solution, I do not care to be a part of the problem.

WILLIAM FAUST
State Senator

Increase in class size not sound

By BYRON K. ANTCLIFF, Superintendent
Huron School District

Soaring costs of public and private education have caused many involved individuals and groups to seek means of offsetting the effects of increases.

One solution proposed often is to increase the class size. Research now available indicates this is not an educationally sound answer to the problem.

A Columbia University study shows there are "critical breakpoints" below which performance scores drop sharply. These points occur at class sizes of 10 students and 16 students at the secondary level.

More important the study showed that styles of educational activity are even more important than class size. The most effective styles were small group work, individual work, discussion, laboratory work, pupil reports and demonstration.

Least effective styles were lecture, movies, desk work, and question-answer periods.

It should be noted that the least effective styles are the ones used most in our schools today.

Citizens should demand that when the lecture style is used, large class sizes are also used.

A history lecture by proper scheduling can be given once to 180 students rather than six times to 30 students. This would give 5 hours of free teacher time for the implementation to the more effective teaching styles which need smaller class size for the most learning to occur.

To increase class size will not result in improved education. What is needed is a flexible approach to class size so that the most effective teaching style is being used for the particular learning task.

Citizens should study their local situation and make their feeling on this important issue known to local school officials.

Senate bills unveiled for veterans

Meaningful new educational benefits for Vietnam veterans and guaranteed loans for homes and businesses were unveiled recently in joint Senate legislation by Senator James D. Gray, D-Warren, and William P. Faust, D-Westland.

A similar proposal was also introduced in the House by State Representative Edward E. Mahalak, D-Romulus.

The bill would offer veterans tuition and fees not to exceed $900 a year for each of two years of education in a state supported college or university. The veteran would also be eligible for as much as $100 a year for two years for books and materials.

The same bill would clear the way for making veterans eligible for state guaranteed loans of as much as $10,000 for the purchase of a home or business.

These benefits, however, would depend on enabling legislation and guidelines which would have to be adopted by the Legislature.

The educational benefits would be available to Vietnam veterans who have been Michigan residents at the time of induction; are residents at the time of application for benefits; have been discharged from the service under conditions other than dishonorable; maintain at least a "C" average during their attendance in school.

"The heart of the bill," said Faust, "is to provide needed assistance to a well-deserving segment of our young men and women who unselfishly served their country in the Armed Forces."

"In many instances," said Mahalak, "these veterans would be unable to advance their education without this life."

Collection centers preparing to handle cans and paper

Area residents who have been fighting pollution since February by operating neighborhood glass collection centers are now setting up to collect cans and paper.

Wayne State University students who are running the central collection point for the Detroit area at the Michigan State Fairgrounds are now accepting glass, paper, cardboard, cans, aluminum foil, pie tins, and scrap.

Many of the 32 neighborhood centers are not yet equipped to handle paper and cans, and the neighborhood centers should be contacted before these materials are taken there.

Five neighborhood centers in western Wayne County are: 29300 Eleven Mile, Farmington, open weekdays from 8 to 8:30 a.m., and Saturdays from noon to 2 p.m.; St. Thomas Episcopal Church, 2441 Nichols Drive, Trenton, open Saturdays from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.; Oakland County Community College, Orchard Ridge campus, Orchard Lake Road parking lot, open Saturdays from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m., and Sundays from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m.;

Romulus High School, first Saturday of each month, from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.; and Livonia Environmental Awareness Center, white garage at Five Mile Road and Westmore, near Farmington Road, open daily during daylight hours.

Since Feb. 1, when the Wayne State students started their program, 33 centers have been established, and more than 250 tons of glass collected. Six of the neighborhood groups are now running independent operations.

The Fairgrounds site, which is used as a central drop-off point by 26 groups, is at Gate 2 on State Fair Avenue, and is open on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 10 a.m. to 3:30 p.m., and on Saturdays from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. The students are looking for an alternate site to be used during the 17-day run of the Michigan State Fair during August and September.

The students also announced that American Can Co., 8651 E. Seven Mile, Detroit, and National Can Co., 1300 Levan, Livonia, are accepting cans for re-cycling.

School bus driver award nominations being accepted

The Belleville Area Lions Club is accepting nominations for the Merle Barker Memorial Award.

The award is presented annually to an outstanding driver of the Van Buren Public Schools Transportation Department.

This year's contest chairman, Jerry McKelvey, detailed the rules for winning the award, named in the honor of Merle Barker, transportation foreman for the school district until his death in March, 1970.

The award rules require that only those drivers nominated on an official nomination form shall be eligible for the award. Nominations may be made by anyone living in, attending or working for the Van Buren School District.

Completed nominations must be submitted on or before June 15 and the nominations must be sent to the Belleville Area Lions Club, Merle Barker Memorial Award, P.O. Box 184, Belleville.

"This is not a popularity contest. The number of nominations is not significant, however, the content of the nomination will be used by the committee as the basis for selecting the recipient of the award," club officials said.

In submitting a nomination consideration should be given to the following: driving ability, safety record, road courtesy, work record, student conduct, character, other contributions to school and community and other with an explanation, McKelvey reported.

The Lions Club will make the final decision in selecting the recipient based on the content of the nomination. The recipient of the award trophy will make the trophy available for display purposes at the request of the club.

In submitting nominations, list the name and state in 100 words or less why you are nominating the driver named for the Merle Barker Memorial Award.

South beats North in softball games

The girl students from South Junior High School played host to their counterparts from North Junior High School for a swinging set of softball games recently.

A wild afternoon of ups and downs and slashing bats culminated with the "Vikings" being vanquished by the "Tiger Kittens" from South. The South junior squad finished beat North 16-9, and joined the spectators to watch the end of the ninth grade contest. While the weather turned the players blue, the South squad ended up with a sunshine smile, winning 25-10.

The contests were full of friendly banter for most of the girls had been classmates last year.

Mrs. Mary Baribeau of North Junior High and Mrs. Lynde Woolace of South Junior High were the sponsors of the girls. Both are physical education instructors at their respective schools.

Dog canvassers net 650 violations

A city-wide dog canvass in Romulus initiated by police and deputized civilian assistants in the first week of May has netted a total of 650 violators of the city's Dog Ordinance, Police Chief Jacob J. J. Koch disclosed Monday.

The dog owners are charged with having no dog licenses for their pets. The tickets issued by a crew of four including three part time men, call for an appearance before the 34th District Court, Romulus.

Chief Koch reported that the dog canvass will continue until the whole city is checked.

He added that court fines that have been assessed are generally $2 fines with $4 court costs. And a requirement that the dog owner obtain a dog license and show proof of dog vaccination.

In time of sorrow, understanding and compassion can be like a guiding light to those who have been bereaved. In our many years of serving this community, we have ever sought to help guide those who carry the burden of having to make decisions during a difficult time, by offering our knowledge and experience as well as our sympathy.

The National Bank of Everywhere.

Despite our name, National Bank of Detroit, we're a local bank, with more than 100 offices in the community. You'll find an NBD branch office in your neighborhood in Belleville.

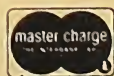

This means that your NBD office is staffed by seasonal banking professionals who are totally familiar with your neighborhood. People who know you and your particular money needs. And people who take an active interest in your community. Because it's their community, too.

But you'll also find advantages that most branch offices don't offer. Unlike most, for example, we don't make you drive to our downtown Detroit office to execute a mortgage or arrange a major loan. With NBD, you handle it all right in your community.

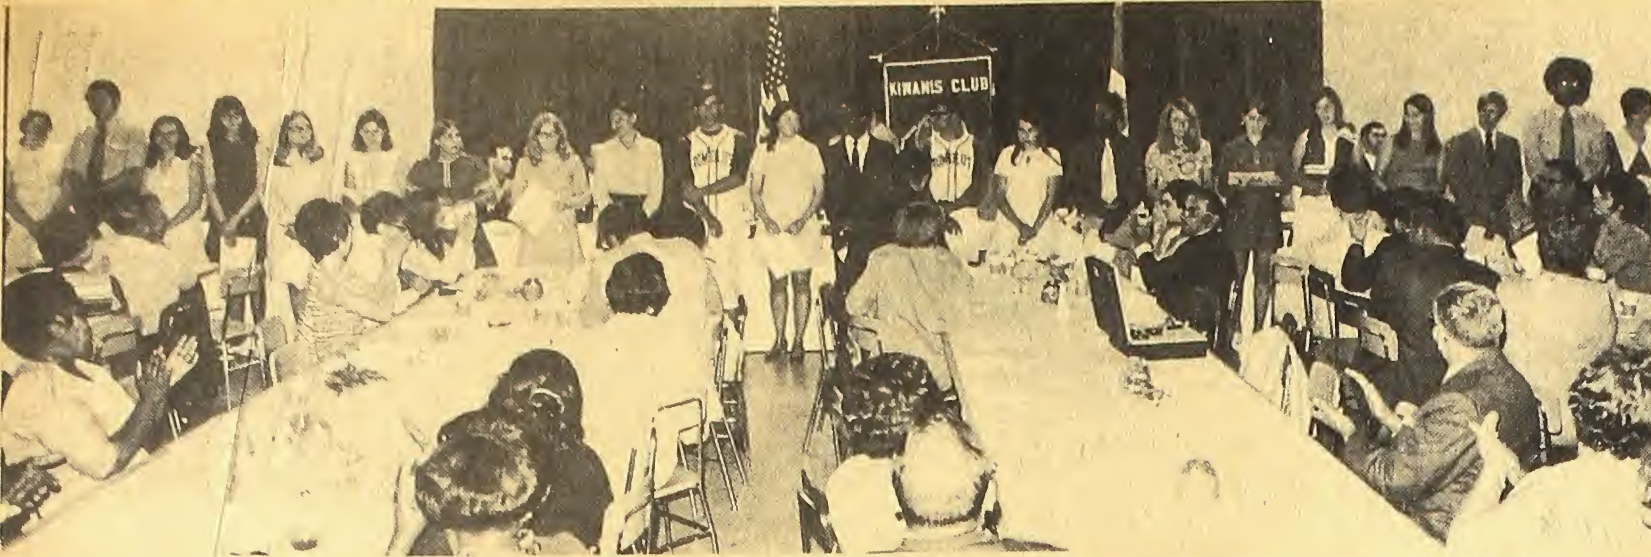

And should the NBD branch people serving you wish to consult on a money matter, they're only a phone call away from the senior management of our main office. Which gives you the added security of knowing that your money management is backed by the expertise and knowledge of the people who head Michigan's biggest bank.

For all your banking needs, the bank to see is NBD.

You'll find one just minutes away from where you are right now. National Bank of Detroit.

Matrons set picnic date

The YWCA sponsored Young Matrons group met Thursday to learn how to make decorative stained and leaded glass objects and to make plans for a picnic.

The group, which has been meeting in the Special Service Building during the hours of the "Y" sponsored pre-school nursery, will meet again on Wednesday, June 16, at 10 a.m. to form car pools to go to Lower Huron Metropolitan park for the picnic.

"Everyone is to bring their own lunch," said Chairman Jeannie Ursery, "and all the children are welcome."

Instead of drawing sustenance through its roots, seaweeds synthesizes food from nutrients absorbed from the water. Giant kelp, towering up 125 feet tall, will grow a foot a day under the right conditions.

License reports requested

A request for a 1971 pool room license from Cue Corners, located at Middlebelt and Ecorse Rds., has been tabled by Romulus City Council.

Action on the license request was delayed until a report is made by both the Romulus City Police and the Wayne County Sheriff's Office on the establishment.

The police reports were requested by Councilman James C. Stewart.

Symphony attendance increased this year

Attendance and ticket income increased sharply during the Detroit Symphony Orchestra's recently concluded fiscal year, ending May 1.

In his annual report to the Symphony Board, Symphony General Manager Marshall W. Turkin included the following statistics as indicative of "a healthy increase" in the popularity of the Orchestra:

— The total live audience, including free summer and children's concerts, showed a 2 per cent increase compared with the previous year, or a rise from 311,688 to 397,110. This is not counting radio and television listeners.

— Ticket income rose 32 per cent, from $324,000 to $430,000.

Turkin noted that it was "especially gratifying to see that our regular season Thursday/Saturday subscription concerts at Ford Auditorium showed an 86 per cent gain in individual concert admissions — that is, in our single sales which many other features for the history buff.

On Pioneer Day you can take your family back in time by having an "old fashioned" dry plate picture made with an old car as a background, wearing the straw hat of yesteryear. For those who are always reminiscing about the "good old days", you'll now have the opportunity to take your children to a nickel movie.

Old fashioned games like roll the hoop, fox and hounds, and many others, will be available for the kiddies participation. Taste sweet homemade butter churned by hand, see the making of soap and candles dipped and molded.

Neddlework art of grandmother's time will be demonstrated by members of the Guild and friends. This will include embroidery, knitting, and crocheting, quilting and quilt making.

Other crafts will be canning and rushing, spinning and weaving, and the making of colonial dried arrangements.

Girl Scouts will be on hand making corn husk dolls and clothes pin dolls and the Boy Scouts are going to demonstrate knots and indian dancing. The Girl Scouts will also entertain you with the Virginia Reel.

The Second Connecticut Regiment of the Continental

Line of the Brigade of the American Revolution War Reinactors, are young college students all under 25 who research authenticity in uniform, accoutrements, and customs of people during that period of history. They will also demonstrate blacksmithing, hand-tailoring, and crafts of the Revolutionary period.

The Women's Auxiliary, all younger ladies, specialize in the handwork and crafts of the 1750 period.

The Civil War Period will be represented by Battery A, First Michigan Light Artillery Regiment (Loomis Battery), Civil War Reenactment Group. These ladies and gentlemen appear in authentic Civil War Costume and participate in a cannon drill and fire.

Among other demonstrations, will be the making of mini balls and handmade pewter buttons.

Paper will be made as it was during the colonial period, Hitchcock stenciling and many other crafts of the time will be for the viewing.

To entertain the public the Detroit Police Department Band will add musical background to the festivities — and in keeping with the "old country fair" atmosphere, there will be hot dogs, popcorn, pop, coffee, penny candy and old fashioned cookies.

PIANISTS AT CONCERT — These nine area youngsters were among the 1,000 from Michigan to participate last Sunday in the 28th annual Michigan Music Festival at Cobo Hall in Detroit. They are (front, from left) Kim Gobel, 13, of 4193 Biddle, Wayne; Evelyn Garrison, 16, of 26143 Penn, Inkster; and Mito Idunate, 12, of 34830 Harroun, Wayne; (back from left) Tim Higgs, 11, and Toni Higgs, 12, of 34623 Ash, Wayne; Susan Moyland, 11, of 34432 Harroun, Wayne; Norena Lumpkin, 9, of 27304 Kitch, Inkster; Joe Moyland, 10, of 34432 Harroun, and Mary Lou Robinson, 9, of 34548 Harroun, Wayne. Performing in duos, the mass piano concert featured the compositions, "The Bell Doth Toll" and "Czech Dance." The concert was co-sponsored by Grinnell Brothers and the Festival Teachers Association and was conducted by Eric Norris, a well-known Michigan director and organ instructor.

'Confession' tops 'Z'

Paramount Pictures presents a Robert Dorfmann and Bertrand Javal Production, "The Confession," directed by Costa-Gavras, screenplay by Jorge Semprun from the autobiography by Lise and Artur London. Color. Rated GP. French, with subtitles. 138 minutes. At the Studio North with the following cast: Yves Montand, Simone Signoret, Gabriele Ferzetti, Michel Vitold.

By HOWARD ALLEN
Eagle Movie Critic

Just what director Costa-Gavras, screenwriter Jorge Semprun and actor Yves Montand can do to top "Z" their withering indictment of the rightist military takeover in Greece has now been answered with "The Confession," their magnificent and intense horror story of a Czech purge trial in 1952.

In 1952, before Stalin's death and in the nadir of cold war tensions, shock waves were still spreading outward in eastern Europe from Tito's defection from the Russian camp. A dozen of the highest Czech officials were condemned in a rigged purge trial for association with the alleged American spy Noel Field. Artur London, then vice-minister for foreign affairs had known Fields; London had spent the war in the west, fighting with the French underground after opposing Franco in Spain. These western associations made him suspect in 1952.

"The Confession" tells of his arrest, inquisition and trial. It might seem that 2 hours is too long to delineate a man's downfall at the hands of skilled inquisitors; it is not. Costa-Gavras' attack is unified, building on its own momentum inevitable and inexorable as doom.

His film is almost a documentary; although Gerard's (as he is called in the film after his WWII code name) reflections about prior life are shown in flashbacks, interspersed with shots of his future to be, and also the reactions of his wife Lise outside, the movement of his life from the time of his arrest and his deterioration are presented without theatrics, in non-passioned display. Costa-Gavras' depiction is lean, without flourishes; he uses Raoul Coutard's photography almost as an offensive weapon, another inquisitor, affording Gerard no place to hide.

But this film is not Costa-Gavras', nor is it Coutard's or Semprun's or even Montand's, although the latter's bravura performance is sensitive in its exquisite agony. The film belongs to London, the man who lived it, for his remarkable and graphic documentation of Red brain-washing techniques.

Costa-Gavras again proves the power of truth over fiction. "The Confession" is a horror story which no vampire or monster film can top in terror.

'From Bonnets to Booties' on view

"From Bonnets to Booties - All About Babies", now on view at the Detroit Historical Museum, touches on a broad range of topics inherent in the subject beginning with historical census records. For example, the first child whose Baptism is noted in the Register of Ste. Anne's Church was Marie Therese DeLamotte Cadillac recorded February 2, 1704. She was the daughter of the city's founder, Antoine Cadillac, who established Ste. Anne's just a few days after he landed on the banks of the Detroit river in 1701.

The settlement at this time numbered comparatively few people, and the population growth was hardly what one would call explosive! By 1709 there were about 200 villagers and while new families continued to immigrate and the birth rate went up to as many as 25 by 1749, a high infant mortality took a great toll.

By 1763 some 1,367 persons were reported as living either in the Fort itself, nearby, or on Hog Island (later called Belle Isle). Approximately 100 years later htc population had grown to 79,577 and the 1970 enumeration of the City of Detroit is 1,511,482.

But the exhibit does more than examine population growth. Some of the factors contributing to infant and maternal mortality are reviewed, pointing out extended life expectancy due to improvements in sanitation, medication, surgery, anesthesia and nutrition.

Although at the time of Detroit's first incorporation as a town in 1802, the charter provided "The Board of Trustees...shall have full power and authority...to make...such laws and ordinances...as shall seem necessary and proper for the health (etc.) of the town of Detroit" it was not until 1881 that the first Health Officer, Dr. O.W. Wright, was appointed.

Another milestone in the history of the health department was the appointment of Dr. Guy L. Kiefer in 1902, for within the next twelve years innumerable new services and safeguards were implemented, not the least of which was the establishment of a Mother's Clinic in 1910 in an effort to reduce the very high infant mortality.

With the cooperation of the Visiting Nurse Association information on health care and even classes in the schools on matters of baby hygiene were offered. In 1914 two prenatal clinics and one baby clinic were established at branch health centers and the licensing and inspection of midwives, baby boarding homes and maternity homes were started. The Department of Health and the Visiting Nurse Association continue a vital program of pre-natal instruction and assistance as well as after-care.

Even more vivid, from an exhibition point of view perhaps, are the changes and improvements in dress and accoutrements especially designed for babies.

In the Museum's collection for example, is a delightful little book called "The Nursery Basket," printed in 1854 which delineates a practical, but not ostentatious, we are told, layette.

From what the authors term practical experience, they recommend having on hand: twelve cambric shirts, six knit worsted shirts (sometimes called "robbins"), four flannel bands, three night petticoats or "pinning blankets", four plain flannel petticoats and two of finer material, four flannel sacques, four quilted or knot bibs, one cap, one cloak, six cambric shirts (presumably also "finer"), six night dresses, six slips, twelve dresses, twelve aprons, eight pairs of socks, one double wrapper, one flannel wrapper, one worsted apron, five dozen napkins (diapers).

Babies in 1854 were certainly well clad. And the modern homemaker is reminded the fabrics used were not "wash and wear" nor was it possible to merely turn on a faucet to get hot water. Sheer maintenance of just the baby's wardrobe contributed in no small way to the premise that "women's work was never done." And the provision for knit, flannel and worsted clothing reflects the non-existence of central heating and thermostatically controlled room temperatures.

In relation to the baby's dresses, one is advised that the most suitable length was well over a yard. One in the Museum's collections, worn by Mary Barnard, a descendant of the Moran Family, in 1881, measures 37". Yet another of an earlier period, made in 1829 by Caroline Butler Dusenbury for her daughter Katharine, who later became Mrs. Allan Sheldon. These, with more than a score of others were selected for inclusion in the exhibit.

The gamut of garments on view feature bonnets of every description - simple little ones of lawn delicately trimmed with fine laces; sturdy ones for more practical protection; and some fantastic creations of puffs, ruffles, laces and embroidery quite befitting the young king or queen of the household. There are booties and bibs, wrappers and robes, petticoats and pantaloons, to name but some of the costume materials in the infant's wear collections.

Cradles displayed range from the functional to the frivolous - plain unadorned pine ones, an elaborate burl walnut example of the 1860-70 Eastlake period and one of wicker, complete with fanciful

ATTENTION! HURON TOWNSHIP VOTER!

Are you satisfied with your school system? If you believe you are, ask yourself the following questions:

1. Are your children being educated with their futures in mind?
2. Does their education reflect the values, judgment and direction of you, the parent, or is it dictated by a powerful few?
3. Has the present school board met its obligation to bring the facts to the VOTER?
4. Are you certain your tax dollar is put to work effectively to provide the caliber of education that our children deserve?

The chances are very good that you cannot answer these questions . . .

—If the present School Board was genuinely interested in our children, you & I would know all these answers!

—If the present Board was genuinely interested in our children, their attitude towards parents would not be vague & evasive. They would not be confronted with questions they can't answer.

—If the Board was interested in our children it would not be necessary to use their responsibility to the state as an alibi for irresponsibility to the taxpayers.

You, the voter can open the door to a better education for your children. An education that is the product of a School Board that will listen to parents, a School Board that will be fully accountable to all for its actions.

If elected, we the undersigned, vow to work with parents in solving the problems confronting our schools.

Huron board candidates to fill four vacancies

The annual school election of the Huron School District (June 14) has 10 residents vying for five school board positions.

The voters are being asked to fill two four-year terms, two three year terms and a one-year term.

The candidates seeking the four year terms are incumbents Louis C. Larabell Jr., 28851 West Road, New Boston, current school board vice president; Mrs. Jean E. Richert, 19270 Hannan Rd., present school board secretary; Ross E. McLean, 19407 Savage Rd., Belleville; and Mrs. Helen Harby, 21894 Bell, New Boston.

Those seeking three-year terms are: James W. Pershing, 19611 Clark Rd., Belleville; Lincoln W. Ward II, 23883 Clark Rd., Belleville; Joseph S. Majtyka, 28470 Haggerty Rd., New Boston; and John E. Puskar, 26880 Romine, New Boston.

Candidates seeking for the one year term are: Olaf McDavid, 30362 West Road, Flat Rock, and Leopold Betz, 19031 Savage Rd., Belleville. To assist school district voters in electing members to the school board, the Romulus Roman sent questionnaires to the candidates requesting background information and personal comments.

The information is as follows:

Leopold Betz, 46, has lived in the community for seven years. He and his wife are the parents of three children.

He attended New Jersey elementary and high schools and also Newark College of Engineering. He is the owner of Consulting Engineering and Technical Service Co., Detroit.

Betz is a member of several engineering societies, Church Administrative Committee, political organizations and children activities groups. He served in the U.S. Navy (submarine service) from 1942-1946.

On his reason for seeking the school post, Betz said, "The greatest responsibility we have is our obligation to children, not only yours and mine, but to all children.

"The hope of our township, our state, our nation, lies with our kids. The boys and girls of today will be tomorrow's leaders, our policy and decision makers.

"The quality of our education depends not only upon the educational opportunities we are able to offer, but it relies a great deal on our ability to motivate and interest our children in learning.

"The Huron School District can, with good will, courage and knowledge, provide both the opportunities and the motivation necessary for excellence in education.

"It is the task of your local school board to shape policy for a sound educational program. Also they must maintain a realistic budget and keep abreast of the changes in the educational process.

"I feel I am qualified and can assist your school board of education in these very important and serious decisions which face the district."

Pointing out that the problem of most concern to all is finance, Betz added, "A school district's money problems should not be solved by going to half-day sessions, reducing the teaching staff or by hiring educators with less qualifications for purposes of less salary expenditures."

"Resolution, to some degree, can be realized by a state distribution of school funds on an equitable basis. Local school taxes could be eliminated and collection of funds could be on a uniform and statewide equitable basis."

Mrs. Helen Harby, 41, has been a resident in the school district for two and a half years. She and her husband, William, are parents of two children.

She attended Roosevelt High School and has been active in Huron Civic League, Cub Scout Pack 827 and Girl Scout Troop 588. and is a member of the Military Order of Lady Bugs. She has held official's positions in these organizations.

She reported that she is seeking the school post "because I am concerned with the general deteriorating conditions in the community." She says that she is qualified for the position "because of my genuine concern for the affairs in the community."

She adds that the major issue in the election is the exclusion of public opinion from public schools and the utter disregard for financial spending."

Louis C. Larabell Jr., 48, present school board vice president who seeks another four-year term, has been an area resident for 23 years.

He and his wife, Rose are parents of four children.

He attended DeLaSalle Collegiate, Annunciation High School, Detroit, and Wayne State University. He is president of Cadillac Floors Inc., Detroit.

He ran for township clerk in 1962 and Huron School Board in 1967. He served as Huron Township Trustee from 1962-66 and was elected to the school board in 1967.

Larabell is a member of the New Boston Rotary and of the Huron Township Fire Department. He served as vice president, secretary and treasurer of Rotary and treasurer of the fire department. He served also in the Air Force in 1942.

Joseph S. Majtyka, 58, lived in the school district for 11 years, he and wife, Jane Marie are parents of five children: Joseph Jr., 28; Christopher, 26; Antoinette, 16; David, 14; and Elizabeth, 13.

He has high school training and attended Design Engineering Institute, College of Applied Science and is still going to night school.

He is employed at the Dearborn Engine Plant of Ford Motor Company as equipment design and material handling engineer.

He is a member of the Sumpter Township Homeowners Association, Huron Civic League, Tri-Town Men's Garden Club and the American Security Council (advisory Board member).

He seeks a position on the school board, Majtyka said, "Because of prevalence of general attitude, lack of trust and division of people in the Huron Township community and civic affairs.

"I care and have a genuine concern and appreciation for the welfare of children including my own in the school system, because I care for the welfare of parents and various problems they encounter bringing up children and paying taxes in these fast changing times. And because I care for the people in this divided community where doubt, criticism and agitation exists."

Olaf S. McDavid, 45, is a district resident of 18 years. He and his wife, Olga are parents of five children:

He attended Whellright High School, School of Mines and Minerals, Lexington, Ky. He is employed as a millwright and repairman at Wyandotte Chemical.

He is active in Little League and the Boy Scouts. He is a Little League manager and is on the League Board.

He is seeking the school board job "because of a general concern for the caliber of education made available to the children in the school district and the belief that parents have every right to voice an opinion in decisions which affect our schools. Also I feel that a practical attitude toward school system financing would generate a better education without escalating cost to taxpayers.

McDavid also stated in discussing the election: "I feel that lack of communication between parents and administration is a critical problem in the Huron School District. And many other problems in our schools are a direct results of this."

James W. Pershing, 34, has lived in the area for four years. He and wife, Beverly are the parents of five children.

He attended Battle Creek High School, Tri-State College, Angola, Ind., and Henry Ford Community College. He holds Bachelor of Science degree in Mechanical Engineering.

Pershing is employed as a product development engineer at Ford Motor Company, Dearborn. He is active with the Cub Scouts and People for Huron Committee and its current president. He is a former school board candidate.

In seeking the office Pershing said, "I am seeking this office because I feel I can make a positive contribution to the Huron Board of Education. To begin with, I like children and am vitally interested in their education. I have four children attending Huron schools. I am proud of the quality of education offered to the students of Huron.

"It is the highest quality that can be achieved from the monies available. This educational quality must be maintained and further improved whenever possible within the funds available. This can be done only with a school board of intelligent people willing to represent the whole community and to make personal sacrifices of time and energy. I feel I can do this with a spirit of cooperation and understanding."

On being qualified to run, Pershing added, "I feel I am qualified because I have attended nearly all of the board meetings for the last two years and understand the function of the school board.

"I took a stand in the recent school controversy and was an avid supporter of the school. I have a working relationship with the school administrators, and yet the sense to maintain an open mind so an issue can be thoroughly and reasonably discussed to reach a decision that can be backed by the whole board and the community."

He added that the major issue in the election is to get good qualified people elected who have uppermost in their mind the welfare of the school district and its children and will properly perform their duties." We must get the community working together," he said.

Mrs. Jean E. Richert, 37, had been an area resident for 12 years. She and her husband, Joseph, are the parents of six children.

She attended Breckenridge High School, Alma College and Missouri Teachers College. She holds Bachelor of Arts degree.

Mrs. Richert is current school board secretary and seeks another four-year term. She is a member of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, New Boston and Wayne County Community College Citizens Committee.

In seeking another term Mrs. Richert stated:

"I have found the Board of Education to be a challenge for the last four years. I believe in continuing the fine educational standards we have for my children as well as the others in the district and I feel that by serving on the board I can contribute to this goal."

On the election she said, I am a teacher and have had experience at many grade levels. I have six children, three adopted and three natural and genuinely enjoy and appreciate children. I have served on several educationally oriented citizens committees for many years. I feel that I have conscientiously served on the Board of Education for four years and can use the experience to the advantage of the school district."

Lincoln W. Ward II, 33, has been a district resident for 11 years. He and wife, Patricia, are parents of two children.

He attended Flat Rock High School the United States Air Force Personnel School. He is employed as a legal investigator for the Wilson & Wilson firm, River Rouge.

He was a candidate of the school board last year and is vice president of the People for Huron Committee and active in the Boy Scouts.

He served in the Air National Guard (Michigan) 1956-60 and Air Force Reserve 1960 to 62.

On his reasons for running for the school board job Ward said, "My wife and I have two children in the public schools, so I have a very special interest in the district and in education in general. The future years may be difficult ones in regards to operation and functioning of school districts.

"I feel that a devoted, energetic and cooperative board will be able to meet the challenges that face them in continuing to offer a better education in Huron School District. I would be honored to be a part of such a team."

"I feel that my service in community affairs in the past has helped me greatly. Being a member of the curriculum council has widened and updated my knowledge in that area. These are the kinds of experiences that make people better board members."

Questionnaires mailed to John E. Puskar and Ross E. McLean have not been received by edition time.

Lincoln school voters asked to okay mill hike

On Monday voters in the Lincoln Consolidated School District go to the polls to decide the fate of a five-mill proposition for operating funds.

According to School Supt. David Wood, 2.5 mills are renewal of existing tax and 2.5 mills are new taxes needed for continuance of the full educational program.

The district faced the loss of about $42,000 in state aid when the legislature cut back on school funds to balance its budget. It cost another $20,000 to provide students with textbooks, paper, pencils and other supplies to comply with the recent Supreme Court ruling.

Eastern Michigan University is gradually withdrawing its support of the district and in the past three years has reduced its payments by $150,000. Because of reduced valuation of the district, it faces the loss of another $20,000 in revenue, Wood said.

"In the face of these losses, expenses are continuing to climb," Dr. Wood stated. "Textbooks, furniture and supplies are more expensive. Teacher salaries are up, and we face other increases in operating costs."

If the millage does not carry, the district will be compelled to cut out the athletic program, all after-school activities and reduce the number of teachers in the junior and senior high schools. The elementary school will lose its physical education and music programs, library services will be reduced and teachers will be released which will increase class sizes. Bus services will be reduced and custodial and maintenance employees will be curtailed.

LOW COST VEHICLE LOANS SINCE 1871

The one-horse carriage doesn't look like much today. But, in 1871, it was considered a very sporty model. In a hundred years of helping downriver residents finance transportation, we've seen vehicles change dramatically. But, people haven't changed that much. Your great-grandparents came to Wyandotte Savings Bank for dependable service ... and low vehicle loan rates. We still offer both.

Resident gives impressions of Memorial Day festivities

Editor's Note: The following article was submitted by David Beegle, 34631 Lynn Dr., Romulus. In it he gives his impressions of Romulus' Memorial Day Parade.

By DAVID BEEGLE

The sound of stirring march music carried on the morning breeze as the band neared the corner where a crowd waited, waving and smiling at the firemen on the shining red and brass fire engines that led the parade.

Close behind came the war Veterans, many not so young anymore and some not so erect and sure in their step as they once were, but still possessed of a certain assertive dignity, the dignity of men who knew they had done their utmost in a cause they had felt bound to uphold and still stand ready to do what is required of them now in the name of that cause. Marching with them were Mothers who had given more than their lives for the same cause that bounded the veteran's loyalty.

Then came the high school band, sounding pretty good and with pretty majorettes and pompon girls strutting and prancing along before them.

Following the band as it rounded the corner and headed up main street came a train of Brownies and den mothers and pony carts with polished harness and clowns and Campfire Girls and Bluebirds and cars carrying local lodge and club representatives and politicians and a whole crew of unauthorized motorcycle cops in the form of several dozen kids on chopper and high riser bicycles.

Marching along between the smiling spectators, the parade reached its destination; the cemetery. Filing in to the muffled tap of the drums, the color guard and the Veterans and the Gold Star Mothers led the way through the columns and slabs of granite, where many of those who had died for the cause lay in their native soil.

Stopping at the flagpole that rose among the monuments, the uniformed men and the women in white dresses read a statement and a proclamation that told why they were there and what they were doing, as the flag over them flew at half mast.

They were there to honor the memory of the men and boys who had given their lives in the cause of freedom; to preserve our country as a nation of free individuals who govern themselves and live under law without hindrance or duress from any foreign government or dictatorship. That's what they fought for. That's what they died for. That's what they believed in.

After the addresses were read, the veterans closed the ceremony by firing a salute. Marchers and spectators alike headed for the VFW Hall where they polished off piles of hot dogs and gallons of pop, some of the men taking a glass of beer or two besides.

Another Memorial Day parade in Romulus. Not a big affair, really. Pretty much of a small town flavor to the whole thing.

Sure, it was just a small-town affair. But it showed me something a lot of big-city happenings don't. All the people marching marching side by side, working toward the same purpose. No dissension or discord. Even where there was a grain of fault to be picked up by someone who chose to, it was overlooked and tolerated and harmony prevailed.

The wars that claimed the lives of most of the men we honor now on Memorial Day were fought years ago. The war we fight now is said by many to be a different kind of war than those wars. It may well be so.

Nevertheless, Many men in the full bloom of their youth gave their lives that we today might enjoy the freedom they believed in. Let's not waste it.

Van Buren schools receive test report

The first report concerning the 1970-71 educational assessment program conducted by the Michigan Department of Education has been received by the Van Buren Public School District. School Supt. Dale E. Kaulitz said the report lists individual pupil scores on vocabulary, reading, mechanics of written English, mathematics and composite achievement.

Individual pupil scores may be used by school personnel in counseling with students and parents. Since the test scores are personal information, they are considered confidential and will not be made a part of the public record, but will become a part of the pupil's school file, Kaulitz reported.

The educational assessment tests were administered to fourth and seventh graders in the Van Buren Public Schools some weeks ago. A total of 1,190 pupils were given the

Our readers write Reader sickened by Homeowner's 'logic'

To the editor:

To educate or not educate our children, that is the question. It was indeed gratifying to see that the Board of the Van Buren Civic Association voted their overwhelming support of the proposed 3 mill school tax.

Huron board prexy answers criticisms

To the editor:

School election time is here again and with it the miserable practice of a few candidates throwing mud in every direction.

It seems they consider this practice much easier than trying to spend the time to become informed, in order to get the facts straight, and even be constructive in their criticism.

In a recent article, a candidate for the Huron Board of Education has "put words in my mouth", mis-quoted me, and taken part of a statement by me and twisted it into something entirely different. I am not a candidate for election, but feel it is necessary to attempt to keep the record straight.

The Huron school board does not knowingly waste money on anything. If we did, we could not operate at one of the lowest dollar costs per child in the county. Incidentally, the year that Sumpter School District was dissolved, Huron schools were operating on less money per child than Sumpter District had available.

The citizens must again go to the polls in large numbers to prevent rule by a very vocal minority. The tactics are the same as in the past: half statements, innuendo and totally uninformed repetition of rumors which grow and grow in their exaggeration.

All citizens are urged to vote next Monday, June 14.

I hope you will study the candidates and vote for those who have been dedicated to education and kids for at least several years.

Your Board of Education cannot waste another meeting - let alone a year - or more, of fighting. The kids won't wait! Vote Monday - to be sure.

Carl Rush, President
Huron Board of Education

A THOUGHT TO REMEMBER

BY HAROLD REDISKE, DIRECTOR

It seems ages ago, but do you recall Astronaut John Glenn's TV press conference following his first orbital flight? When asked if he said a special prayer before his journey into space, he replied, "No"... Maybe you remember how he said, in effect, religion was a daily habit with him, not something to be turned on or off like a water faucet when needed.

His statement is worth remembering... Any clergyman will tell you it is never too late to turn to religion, even in times of turmoil or stress. And, have you ever noticed those who have happy, confident, every day smiles are usually those who adhere to their beliefs in every day living?

Some call it prayer in time. Because time never stands still, it is worth remembering that in any one's life time, it is never too late...

Support for athletics is urged

Editor's Note: The following article was submitted by Mrs. Jean E. Richert, secretary of the Huron Board of Education. She is candidate for a new four-term in the June 14 school election. As the time draws near for the annual school board election and the campaigning gets down to the nitty gritty, the people in Huron School District probably get more and more confused. They are assailed by "facts" about their schools that have little or no meaning and no basis in reality. Rumors are flying currently about the athletic program in the district.

It is true that we do have an active and successful athletic program in our district. This is due to the dedicated coaches, both men and women, who give of their time generously to keep the teams going. It is also due to the excellent athletic director we have.

However, it still needs your support. A sound body and a sound mind go hand in hand. Physical fitness is emphasized constantly today. Teamwork continues throughout life. Athletics can contribute all of these things to a child's development.

Let us not tear down a fine program that is meeting and answering problems for today's youth. Let us continue to build it knowing that it is beneficial to all!

Tired of carry-outs?

Here's what you need—a Gas incinerator. It takes all the bother out of garbage and trash disposal. And it does it without smoke, odor, noise or polluting the air you breathe.

A Gas incinerator gobbles up all the combustible things you wouldn't dare put in a garbage disposal and can't burn outside. It makes short work of bones, boxes and boots—in fact anything that's combustible. And it does the job conveniently and completely.

So put an end to your carry-out service. Promise yourself you'll see your appliance dealer about having a Gas incinerator installed in your home. Or, visit your Michigan Consolidated Gas Company showroom for all the particulars. And remember, there's more than enough Gas for all your appliances.

Hamilton gives millage opinion

R. Lynne Hamilton, 43009 Huron River Dr., one of nine candidates seeking to serve on the Van Buren Board of Education commented Monday on the proposed tax increase on the June 14 ballot.

In reference to the proposed three-mill, one year tax levy to be submitted to the voters at the June 14 election I submit the following:

Should General Motors and Ford raise the price on their cars? Should the Union raise their membership fees? Ask me if I want the sun to shine tomorrow. Do I want schools for kids? I'd rather you ask me-What kind of schools for kids? That's a question all citizens could contribute a fair answer to.

My relationship with our schools has been like anybody else's - on a personal basis. Personal - with two children attending school here, as a tax paying citizen supporting our schools; and as a parent supporting millage through the years.

This is why I am running for the school board. I want to have the essential facts on policy making before me, to study carefully this policy and to lend a helping hand wherever I can and most important of all to create more understanding and sharing the facts throughout the community as to the challenges and needs within our schools.

I feel board members and administrators main responsibility is to associate more directly with the people the whole year through. With more direct involvement and straight answers we all could rely on more guidance and understanding of our millage needs.

tax-payers don't mind paying a little extra when they have the answers to the needs.

Election day should not be a static time of confusion. We owe it to our fine student body and to our teaching staff to communicate on all sides. Election time should be a day to look forward to because then we have an understanding of our school needs.

If elected I pledge to listen and to communicate throughout the community and then work for a maximum return of our tax dollars. As a candidate for the school board I have more respect for my fellow residents than to influence them with my personal vote regarding the request for three mills.

As a homeowner and businessman I am influenced by the practice of sound money management. In both roles I can only exercise and employ every possible avenue before going to the bank.

If the administration is satisfied thru the practice of sound money management and have exercised and employed every possible avenue before seeking more millage - then, of course, therein lies the answer for the real need.

'Women Uniting' meeting planned

A number of women in the Belleville Area will be meeting at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow (Thursday) at the Belleville High School Cafeteria to make plans for a program that will be carried out here on Monday, June 21.

The program is part of a nation-wide project being sponsored by a group who call themselves "Women Uniting to End the War."

Women Uniting to End the War have been moved by a recent Gallup poll that reported 78 per cent of the women in America are opposed to the war in Viet Nam. To call this statistic to national attention they are calling upon the women in the country to refrain from making any purchases on June 21.

The day was chosen because it is the longest day of the year to protest the longest war in the national history.

The women initiating the program in Belleville are hoping that this community can and will declare its corporate opinion on this question.

The meeting on Thursday evening is an organized meeting intended to promote the widest possible publicity in this area. Interested women of the community may join at this time, Carol Potter can supply further information at 461-6348.

Belleville finishes 2nd best

Franklin is WW golf champ

By DANN BARKUME
Sports Writer

True to form and prediction, Livonia Franklin regained golf supremacy over area high schools Friday as Coach Bob Visser's Patriots captured its fourth title in seven years at the Western Wayne Invitational held at Salem Hills Golf Course in Northville.

Three of Franklin's four golfers finished in the top six as Jack Wright came home with a 78 to pave the way for the Patriots' 331 team composite which was 13 strokes better than challenger Belleville.

Belleville was runner-up with a team total of 354, while Cherry Hill finished third in the first of seven with a total of 363. Defending champ Garden City West accumulated a fourth place total of 364 while John Glenn was fifth (375); Wayne Memorial, sixth (376) and Garden City East two strokes behind in seventh with 378.

"I felt that if we were as sharp as we were in the league meet we would win this one," said Franklin Coach Bob Visser who also shot an 82 to capture first place honors in the coaches' flight. "The victory was an excellent way to round out the season."

Second Section

Wednesday, June 9, 1971

"It was very satisfying," said Visser.

Wright shot a blistering 38 on the front nine and came with a 40 to take individual honors.

Garden City West's Mike Dobos had scores of 38 and 41 for a total of 79 to take runner-up honors, and Belleville's Craig Barnett finished third with a score of 81 to pace his team to a second place finish.

A total of 28 prep golfers from seven area high schools took part in the annual tournament.

In individual competition, Wright's 78 gave him top honors in the tournament and gave him top spot on the 1971 All-Area golf team. Dobos grabbed second and Barnett took third place honors.

Other members of the 1971 all-area team are: Steve Brzys of Franklin, who finished fourth with an 82, Dean Alexander, also of Franklin, who finished fifth with a 83 and Belleville's Chris Birk who took the last all-area spot, finishing 18 holes with an 86.

Franklin thus took three of the six spots to dominate the 1971 selections. Belleville placed two golfers on the prestigious squad and Garden City West filled the other vacancy.

Tournament director,

Harry Hidenfelter athletic director at Belleville High School, is already looking forward to next year's tournament. "We should have a whale of an outing next year since none of the golfers on the course this year were seniors. I expect the scores to be fantastic next year," he said. Hidenfelter shot an 87 to take the honors away from Don Domke of John Glenn in the athletic director's segment and Visser joined his charges from Franklin in the championship circle as he recorded an 82 to take coaches flight honors away from Norm Boyea of Wayne Memorial, who checked in with an 83.

In the celebrity flight, Jack Scott, assistant principal at Franklin High School walked off with the honors as he carded an 89. The only casualty was Daily Eagle circulation manager, Bill Heasley, who had to come off of the course after the 14th hole because of troubles with the heat.

Johnson is bowing out as coach

By Dann Barkume

After nine seasons at the helm Romulus' Lowell Johnson has decided to retire as baseball coach.

Johnson capped his coaching career with the final Twin Valley Conference championship, a 17-3 won-lost record and runner-up spot in the first district baseball tournament in Michigan.

"When coaching becomes work instead of fun I feel its time to get out," Johnson said. "I love the game and the players were just great, but personal reasons have made it too tough to keep up with both my family and coaching, so I'm going to give it up."

Johnson made his decision at the conclusion of the 1970 season.

"I talked it over with my wife and we decided to give it one more year. It will hurt next year when it comes time for baseball, but I've already submitted my resignation and I consider my decision final."

Johnson plans to stay on as a physical education instructor at Romulus High School, a position he currently holds. He said his reasons for getting out were personal, but that worry had a lot to do with it.

"I had no quarrel with the school system or with the team. Everybody was just great to me and the team was like a close knit family. I'm proud to have been their coach."

Johnson built a championship team this year with a nucleus of three returning lettermen. Under his direction, the Eagles developed into a precision unit displaying talent drive and spirit. Their record this year is proof of their success and Johnson deserves most of the credit though he is quick to point out that the players themselves were constantly showing hustle and determination.

LOWELL JOHNSON
Retires

Johnson hopes to get into scouting or coaching in the summer months with the Pittsburgh Pirates organization.

Perhaps Johnson's greatest accolade came from the members of the Romulus baseball team. Just prior to the district final game last Saturday, pitcher Leighton Ballard and shortstop Virgil Smith presented Johnson with a commemorative trophy from the members of the team.

The trophy contained the names of all the players from the 1971 squad, in the order in which they batted and the inscription read, "To Coach Johnson, in appreciation of his fine work and dedication."

Looking back over nine seasons and three league championships, Johnson said, "I'm proud to have been affiliated with an organization as fine as the one at Romulus. The players, students and adults have given me nothing but complete support and I want to thank them. Nine years is a long time, but I don't regret it one bit."

Johnson departs with a lot of fine memories and an outstanding record as pilot of the Eagles. Members of that team openly admitted that they will miss him.

Their record this year is proof of their success and Johnson deserves most of the credit though he is quick to point out that the players themselves were constantly showing hustle and determination. "They were just great this year," Johnson said "My job was made a lot easier because the players were in there together and they were behind each other all the way. I'll eat my guts out next season, but I feel I had to give it up."

Fant finishes 2nd

KALAMAZOO, Mich., May 25 -- Freshman Mike Fant of Belleville finished second in 880-yard competition at the Mid-American Conference track and field championships last Saturday as his Western Michigan University team won its 13th championship in the last 14 years.

Fant's time in the finals was 1:53.4. In preliminary qualifying, he turned in a 1:52.6 clocking, his best of the year.

Giants blank Braves

It took but 52 minutes to play, which in itself was a record-setting pace for the season, and when the game was all over the Giants had chalked up a 2-0 shutout over the Braves in the Belleville National Little League.

The game on Saturday was the fastest complete game of the 1971 Little League campaign.

Winning pitcher was Lance McArthur who wound up the final two frames with a no-hitter. David Lundell also shared pitching chores for the winners, giving up two hits in four frames.

The two Giants' runs were scored in the opening frame when Mark Stoelton singled, then McArthur hammered a double and both runners were chased home on a safety by David Stocker.

Danny Peterson was the losing pitcher. He gave up a total of four hits.

Elsewhere in the National Little League, the Cardinals got by the Astros, 5-2 while the Cubs orbited the Astros 17-1.

In the Dodgers' 5-3 trimming of the Cards, George Sheffler went the distance to record his second personal win of the campaign. Ray Green extended his torrid slugging, belting a pair of homers and a double for a perfect 3 for 3 day at the plate.

Bennie Collins also had 3 for 3, including his first circuit clout and a double.

In other National League games, the Braves turned back the Mets 5-1 as Jeff Smith turned in a strong pitching performance, limiting the losers to three scattered hits and four walks. He also received excellent defense from third baseman Larry Pingston and shortstop Craig Washburn who made a couple of good plays on hard hit balls.

Smith helped his own cause along with a four-bagger while Jeff Foffarty did a commendable job on the hill for the Mets.

The loss, the Mets' first of the season, forced a deadlock (Continued on Page 22)

TOP PREP GOLFERS — Showing their victory smiles are the top three finishers in the annual Western Wayne Golf Tournament, held Friday at Salem Hills Golf Club. Franklin's Jack Wright, (left) won individual honors with a 78, and Mike Dobos of Garden City West took second place with a 79 while Belleville's Craig Barnett grabbed third place with an 81.

Monroe stops Romulus in district final, 10-1

A two hit 1-0 shutout by Leighton Ballard over Ann Arbor Pioneer gave Romulus the right to play in the district baseball finals at Belleville, but six errors in the third inning of the nightcap was too much to overcome and the Eagles handed the district championship to Monroe, 10-1.

In the first contest, Ballard was outstanding as he gave up only two hits while striking out 10 and walking two. Ballard also scored the game's only run after smacking a double to lead off Romulus' half of the seventh inning.

The Eagles had a tough time getting started, going hitless until Keith Simmons smacked a single with one out in the sixth inning. Up until that time, Pioneer pitcher Mike Dames had held the Eagles in check. Dames was working on a perfect game until Simmons cracked a single. Bill Ward followed with another single, pushing Simmons to third, but Dames was able to retire Tony Hoffman and Virgil Smith in succession to kill off the threat.

The contest was close throughout as both squads played mistake free baseball. Dames was lifted in the seventh inning and Romulus loaded the bases. Pinch-hitter Marty Vaught walked in the seventh with the bases-loaded and Ballard came home with the winning run.

Romulus then waited for the outcome of the Monroe-Adrian contest, the winner of which would meet the Eagles in the championship tilt. It was a slipshod affair, highlighted by poor fielding and a lot of errors.

Monroe blew two early leads, but came back in the seventh inning to take the decision, and win the right to play Romulus for the district championship.

Keith Simmons got the starting nod from Romulus Coach Lowell Johnson and Monroe pilot Paul Wilder countered with righthander Bob Jett.

Both teams could mount little steam in the early innings, but calamity struck in the third frame as Romulus' defense was tagged with six errors and Simmons developed arm trouble. as the Trojans sent 13 batters to the plate and came up with eight big runs on six hits.

The game had to be halted twice because of rain, and Jett dampened the Romulus hitters throughout the remainder of the contest.

Archers eye state title

With the State Archery Championship now less than one week away, archery competition is being increasingly intense. Saturday no less than seven local archers posted A scores or better for the 20-target International Round, held at the Belleville Archery Club Range.

Leading the list for the third week was Bob Hall of Wayne with 292, followed by Bill Good of Belleville with 283 in AA Class.

In A Class, Dick Cardinal recorded 280 to best Bill Williams of Ypsilanti. Top honors in his class went again to Phil Norton of Whitmore Lake with a 210 total, and Hank Urbanowski of Taylor recorded 208 for best in Class C.

In Barebow Division, Stan Wiedmeyer and Thomas Tuttle of Ypsilanti collected medals for their 168 and 160 scores respectively.

Karen Dobar of Plymouth posted a total of 255 to out score Sandy Hoinka by 32 points in AA Class, while Sue Cardinal and Myrtle Urbanowski won posts in Class B and C.

Thirty-one archers were on hand for a 28-field, 14-animal shoot. Again Bob Hall took first place in AA Class with a 776 total of a possible 840. To complete his day, Hall also managed telescopic arrow on the rabbit target, and collected five 4-20 bars for perfect targets shot.

Bill Williams shot 760 for a first place win in Class A, followed by Dick Cardinal of Belleville with 705. Claiming Class B top spot was Bill Good with 683, and Jack Walker of Allen Park took second with 620.

Class C awards were presented to Hank

Urbanowski who posted 608 and collected 4-20 bars for perfect 40 yard and 35 yard targets, and to Philip Norton of Whitmore Lake, finishing with 572 and a perfect 45 yard walk up.

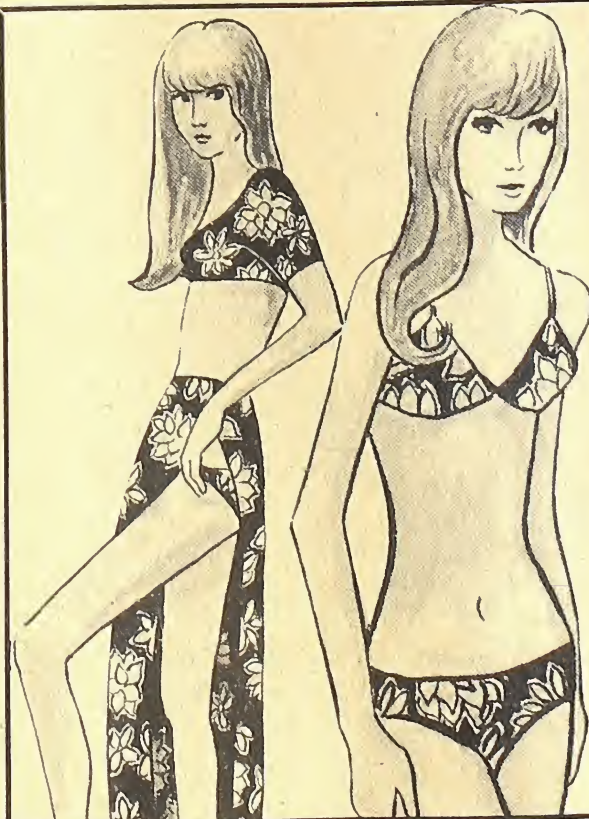

Leading the distaff side in their classes were Dorothy Schultz of St. Clair Shores with 708, Sandy Hoinka with 611, Sue Cardinal scoring, 543, and Doris Gilchrist with 578.

For the Memorial Day Weekend, the Belleville Archery Club will host an open International Round on Saturday afternoon, and a progressive Field Shoot all day Sunday, May 30. Local archers are invited to shoot and spectators, as always, are welcome.

Another perfect coach is selected for honors

This is the year of the "perfect coach."

Last week the Associated Newspapers honored Livonia Franklin's Bob Holmes as the track coach of the year. Holmes' Patriots won the Northwest Suburban

By TOM MOORADIAN
Cage courts or tennis courts, Garden City West's senior athlete Gary Nustad can be deceptive in both. Nustad, a 17-year-old senior who claimed All-Area basketball honors after the last campaign, also went undefeated as West's No. 1 racket during the Tri-River Conference season.

He accumulated a 12-0 record in the league and went on to a 16-1 over-all record before losing in the semi-finals of regional Class A competition.

Nustad is one of 10 players picked by the coaches for The Associated Newspapers 1971 All-Area Tennis Team. Others who have been selected are Nustad's teammates Mike Kilbourn and Jeff Willett. Also among the high school tennis elite are three players from Cherry Hill — Pat Tachoir, Glenn Johnson, Curt Peterson; three from Wayne Memorial — Jim Law, Forrest Morgan and Louis Klein and one from Livonia Franklin, Iain MacDonald.

Nustad is the lone holdover from last year's mythical squad. In fact, during a four-year-span of his tennis career at West, Nustad had made the tennis honor roll three years in a row.

It was the first year that Inkster, John Glenn and Romulus had not been represented on the team.

Kilbourn, who was a key figure in West's doubles, climaxed three varsity years with a 12-1 over-all record and a 11-1 league mark. Also a cager, Mike plans to go to the University of Michigan this fall. Willett, a key figure in Coach Hanosh's singles' strategy, came through this season with a 11-2 record and won 10 of his 12 matches in the league, helping the Tigers to a perfect 13-0 league record which gave them the championship.

All three West netters were also named to the conference team.

Cherry Hill's threesome: Tachoir, Johnson and Peterson were instrumental in keeping Coach Mike Hairabedian's Spartans in the conference title race right up to the very end.

Tachoir has been on the varsity for four years. Over the past two years he had piled up a 28-2 over-all record and this year finished with a 11-1 league mark.

The captain of the team, Pat teamed with Peterson to vie for the regional title in the doubles, reaching the semi-finals before being ousted. He will attend Henry Ford Community College this fall.

Johnson carved out 10 victories in 12 state in league matches and had a 12-3 over-all mark.

Also a member of the school's debating team, which was state champ in 1970 and runner-up this year, Johnson, an outstanding student, will head for the University of Houston this fall.

Peterson's record on the season was 11-3 over-all and 9-3 in the league. All three Spartan players also were drafted for the league squad.

Wayne, which rounded out its final Sauk Trail Conference campaign, playing in the shadows of a strong Dearborn team which hadn't lost a league match in over three years, also placed three on the honor roll.

Among the honored is Jim Law, who is the lone junior to muscle his way into the Top 10. A second-year varsity man, Law will form the nucleus of a team that Coach George Linne will take into the Mid-Wayne Conference next year.

And one bright spot is that Law has fared well against Mid-Wayne competition this year.

for first between the losers and the Giants.

The Giants hung on to a close 8-6 victory over the Pirates to remain as one of the league leaders. They will have to thank shortstop Mark Cornett for coming through for them however.

Cornett got the winners out of trouble when he pulled off a double play singlehandedly then walloped a bases-loaded double for three big runs batted in a see-sawing game that could have gone any way.

The Giants broke a 6-all last inning tie with two runs in the last of the seventh.

Tupperware party held at Pack 739 meeting

Cub Scout Pack 739 combined their recent and last monthly pack meeting for the summer with a Tupperware party. This was the last venture of the pack's month-long fund raising activity.

Cupcakes, coffee and kool-aid were served after the demonstration, during which the cubs enjoyed a movie.

The boys have also been selling first aid kits, pen and pencil sets and felt tip markers. The proceeds have not all been turned in yet but this was a most successful idea.

The regular meeting was a short one with the following boys receiving awards:

Tim Hutchinson, engineer; Tony Palma, Ray Montour, Brian Marchel and Jeff Bassett, athlete; David Tucker, wolf; Phil McDermid, silver arrow; Tony Chalatt, wolf; gold and silver arrow; Leslie Beregsasy, wolf, gold and silver arrow; Reese Workman, five silver arrows, Tom Askew, wolf, gold and Scott Luh, denner, wolf, gold arrow; Ken Swiney, denner and one year pin service star; Mike Budnik, wolf, gold and silver arrow; Kurt Gilstorf, wolf, gold and silver arrow; Mike Glatfelter, gold and silver arrow; Paul Stockman, bear, gold and two silver arrows; Robert Knight, wolf, gold and three silver arrows; Don Allan received his Bobcat pin.

The Pack's program committee already has summer activities for the boys including a night at Tiger Stadium in July. The next outing will be a night of roller skating on June 24 from 7 til 10 p.m. at the Mayflower Roller Rink on Eureka. Admission is $1. This activity is open to the public. The Pack's five mile hike turned into an eight mile hike but 78 people, 43 of them clubs, enjoyed it. The hike was Saturday, May 22, at the Boy Scout Camp in Pinckney Recreation Area.

About one-third of the one million people trained or assisted by Labor Department manpower programs last fiscal year were youths under the age of 22. About 48 per cent or $615,088,000 of the Manpower Administration's $1.28 billion for training support went for young people.

Mahalak tours with Scouts

State Representative Edward E. Mahalak (D) Romulus was host recently to members of his local Girl Scout Troop 340 who visited the capitol.

Mahalak spoke with the girl scouts and their leader and took them onto the floor of the House chamber before the session so that they could pose for pictures at the speaker's rostrum. Later the girls watched the House in session. Mahalak, in speaking to the girls, discussed legislative activities. "It is always a pleasure to me to have persons from my district visit me at the Capitol," he said. "This is particularly true in the case of young people such as those in Troop 340. Troop leaders and parents are to be commended for giving these young women an opportunity to see first-hand the operations of the legislature."

All Around The Town

...with Lee

'Old-fashioned' is the theme

AN 'OLD-FASHIONED PICNIC' is the way the Don Partridges tagged invitations to the get-together at their home on W. Huron River Drive Sunday.

And 'old-time' it was — right down to the handmade granny dresses and poke bonnets which the distaff side sported for the event.

Walt Nolf's recent retirement from the Kroger Company prompted the party. And when Lillian discovered their good friend, Jack Dicks, was about to turn in his badge at Ford's Rouge Plant after 40 years, she added his name to the big cake which proclaimed "Good Luck, Walt and Jack" and sported a huge rocking chair.

Each of the gals brought along 'vittles' for the lawn dinner, tucked their soft drinks into big wash tubs filled with ice and took part in making homemade ice cream. (And that's where the party took on a modern twist — they cheated and used an electric machine.)

Friends in on the fun included Tom, Emma and Sue Stevens; Jack, Wilma, Shar, and Bob Tator; the Nelson Boones, the Spencer Wilkies, Dorothy Curtis, the George Hafts, Barb Partridge, Vera Nolf and sons, Kenn and Dale, and Ginny Dicks.

And helping to make the day complete was the arrival of the Hopeman family, enmasse; the Victor Hopemans from Kingman, Arizona; John and Sue Hopeman; Bill Hopeman, his date, Shirley Cer. and daughter, Sherie; and Robert Hopeman and his bride-to-be, Mary Burns.

And this week-end, the group will be heading for Baulah to attend the June 12 wedding of Robert and Mary which will be held on the lawn overlooking Crystal Lake and at which Barb Partridge is to be maid of honor.

New twists to add to a summer supper

One of life's small joys is a recipe for a new kind of hamburger, or at least it can seem so on a day when you're trying to plan an economical meal based on ground beef. Don't despair — The never-ending ground beef recipe search has turned up another fine one to try.

Inside-out Cheeseburgers are quick and easy cheeseburgers with two new twists. First, the cheese, Cheddar or Roquefort, as you wish, is put in the middle of the burgers and not on top. The second trick is adding a luscious new flavor to ground beef by using the new Shake 'n Bake Seasoned Coating Mix for Hamburger. Just shake the patties in the plastic bag with the mix and let the oven take over for about 15 minutes' baking. The special seasonings in the mix complement ground beef, and the oven method insures burgers that are plump and juicy. Serve the burgers with toasted buns if you want, but weight-watchers, who usually go bunless, will especially appreciate the savory flavor of the burgers by themselves. Try the new hamburgers for an informal meal on the porch, and serve with Orange and Potato Salad. For dessert, make some Jumbo Raisin Cookies to serve with fresh fruit.

INSIDE-OUT CHEESEBURGERS

1 envelope seasoned coating mix for hamburger
2 pounds ground beef
1 teaspoon salt
Dash of pepper
8 slices Cheddar cheese, crumbled
Toasted hamburger buns (optional)

Empty seasoned coating mix into shaker bag. Combine ground beef with salt and pepper. Form into 16 thin patties. Place some of the cheese between 2 patties; seal edges. Repeat with remaining patties. Shake one burger at a time in bag until evenly coated. Place in ungreased shallow baking pan. Bake at 400 deg. for about 15 minutes. Serve on buns. Makes 8 burgers.

Note: Burgers may be prepared and coated, then chilled until ready to bake.

ORANGE AND POTATO SALAD

1 envelope onion salad dressing mix
¾ cup sour cream
¼ cup mayonnaise
6 cups sliced cooked potatoes
1 cup orange sections

Combine salad dressing mix, sour cream, and mayonnaise. Stir into potatoes along with the orange sections, mixing well. Serve on salad greens. Makes about 6 cups of 6 to 8 servings.

JUMBO RAISIN COOKIES

2 cups raisins
1 cup water
4 cups sifted all-purpose flour
1 teaspoon double-acting baking powder
1 teaspoon baking soda
1 teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon cinnamon
½ teaspoon nutmeg
1 cup butter or shortening
1-¾ cups sugar
2 eggs, slightly beaten
1 teaspoon vanilla
½ cup chopped nuts

Bring raisins and water to a boil. Boil until the raisins are plump — about 3 minutes. Set aside to cool. (Do not drain.) Sift flour with baking powder, soda, salt, and spices.

Cream butter. Gradually blend in sugar, creaming well after each addition. Add eggs and vanilla; mix well. Stir in the raisins and any remaining water. Gradually add the flour mixture, blending thoroughly after each addition. Stir in the nuts.

Drop by tablespoonfuls, about 2 inches apart, onto greased baking sheets. Bake at 375 deg. for 12 to 15 minutes. Makes about 3-½ dozen cookies.

'College Week for Women' to include ecology law

What is the Michigan Environmental Protection Act of 1970? How does it affect you, and will it work?

Dr. Leighton Lightly, of the Michigan State University Department of Resource Development, will answer these questions for some participants in MSU's College Week for Women, June 15-18.

"Of major importance is the abolition of the principle of sovereign immunity for state agencies," Lightly says. "Under the law, any state agency may be sued for endangering air, water and other natural resources. This, of course, is not to impugn individuals, but only to point to a social need.

"For the first time, citizens may act as complainants in a suit concerning public environmental values. In the past, only state agencies represented by the Attorney General had the power to sue," he says.

"In this way, the law provides a forum for minority views. An agency can no longer answer individual complaints with a mere statement that, 'We share your concern.' There must be a commitment to action," Lightly says.

Dr. Lightly predicts several important effects of the law: 1) Preventing irreparable environmental damage while the democratic legislative process may have time to take its course.

2) Ending compromises between environmental regulation agencies and the regulated organizations.

3) Establishing a minimum level of environmental quality to which each citizen is entitled.

4) Creating enough public awareness to push other significant legislation.

Other classes available to College Week participants include: "Your Clothes: Fascination to Function," "Learning to Use Conflict," "The Family — A Caring Unit" and "Trends in Health Care."

The cost for the entire convention — including food, lodging and registration fee — is $40. Commuters may register for $7. And, women may attend Visitor's Day — including lunch — for $4.

Doubly-wed in '46, foursome is feted on 25th anniversary

A double wedding 25 years ago was cause for a family party Saturday night marking the silver anniversaries of Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Hicks of 13165 Inkster Road, Taylor, and Mr. and Mrs. Allen Hicks of 15405 Oldham, Taylor.

Sisters married brothers in a June 1, 1946, ceremony at the Justice of the Peace's home in Hindman, Kentucky. Lucy Hall became Mrs. Freeman Hicks and Daisey Hall, Mrs. Allen Hicks.

About 40 gathered for the surprise celebration planned by the two couple's children at the Freeman Hicks home in Taylor where a pot-luck supper was served and a special anniversary cake cut. Topped with a silver 25, the cake was the work of a Freeman Hicks daughter, Mrs. Emma Peppers of Romulus.

Sharing the duties were the Allen Hickses two sons, Mitchell of Taylor and Michael, at home. There has been one grandson added to that family tree.

Ultrasonic sewing will soon be possible

An ultrasonic sewing machine. New steps in bonding methods. A fusing tape. These may be some of the bigger developments in the garment industry since the original sewing machine, says Bernetta Kahabka, extension clothing specialist at Michigan State University. It may sound like science fiction, but an ultrasonic sewing machine has been developed which operates without needle or thread. It can seam, hem, tack, baste, pleat, slit and buttonhole, she says.

The machine sews by welding together synthetic materials with high frequency vibrations. The vibrations generate heat by causing one piece of fabric to vibrate against the other. This creates a molecular change which joins or "sews" the pieces together, Miss Kahabka explains.

Ultrasonic sewing works on woven, non-woven and film materials made of nearly any synthetic fiber.

At present the machine is used in commercial manufacturing, but it will eventually be available in a simplified version for home sewers, the manufacturers maintain.

Bonding, or fusing, is another space age "sewing" development. It has long been used as an interlining, to give garments body and control, Miss Kahabka says.

Early fused fabrics were too stiff and heavy to be compatible with lighter outer fabrics. The new material, however, is soft, washable or dry cleanable, crease resistant and dimensionally stable. Fusing is widely used to completely interline or underline all parts of a garment.

A second type of fusible material is a web-like structure of synthetic fibers. It can be adhered between two layers of fabrics with the heat and pressure of a home iron. It has been available to home sewers for some time.

The advantage of fusing is also one of its major disadvantages, according to Miss Kahabka. Fusing controls the fabric and eliminates stretching. For example, when a collar is fused, it can no longer be stretched out of shape. However, this makes the fabric more rigid so it can't be manipulated easily. Some fabrics don't need a stabilizing material at all.

Miss Kahabka suggests that the home seamstress experiment by fusing two samples of material together. She will be able to see the effect of crispness and body before applying it to her entire garment.

Fusing may provide a substitute for human skills which no longer exist in the same quantities and price range, she says. The continuing research development of fusibles brings the day of stitchless garments even closer.

A Japanese firm has contributed to the research with a fusing tape, the specialist points out. The tape can be applied to polyester fabrics which were previously considered difficult to fuse. The fused seam doesn't get stiff, and it withstands laundering and dry cleaning

Hospital workers agree to 40 cent per hour raise

More than two months after rejecting a contract offer from Peoples Community Hospital Authority, members of the Service Employees International Union (SEIU) Local 79 ratified a 40 cents per hour across-the-board wage increase last week.

The original PCHA offer was for 37½ cents. The contract must now be finalized by a vote of the Board of Directors at its June 24 meeting.

While the union's old contract remained in force, the workers exercised their option to renegotiate wages annually. They initially rejected a board offer just as the board was approving its 1971-72 budget.

PCHA officials were not certain at the time whether or not an additional appropriation would be needed to offset the additional cost of a final contract settlement.

The settlement is costing the Authority approximately $69,000 more than they appropriated in the budget. The entire package will cost $1,302,200. PCHA Public Relations Director Ray Clift stated, however, that he doesn't think that an additional appropriation will be asked to cover the extra cost.

The contract package means an additional cost of $4.20 per patient day to the four PCHA hospitals.

According to Board Chairman Donald J. Pizzimenti, the contract includes increases in shift and weekend pay differential of five cents per hour amounting to additional annual cost of 2½ cents per hour, and also contains increases in fringe benefits costing the equivalent of a nickel an hour.

The total package increase means an increase of 47½ cents per hour to the 1,029 Local 79 employees who work at the hospitals in Lincoln Park.

Trenton, Wayne and Ypsilanti.

Meeting in special session last Thursday, the PCHA Executive Committee voted to recommend to the Board of Directors that the 40 cents per hour wage increase become effective with the pay period beginning June 3.

The committee also agreed to recommend that 32½ cents be paid retroactive to the pay period beginning April 8.

It is not expected that board members will present much opposition to this package increase. An SEIU spokesman said during negotiations that the "People had requested a $1 per hour increase."

He had predicted, however, that final settlement would lay somewhere between the proposed 37½ cents and fifty cents.

In Tuesday's election, 85 percent of the union membership cast ballots, with 762 voting to ratify the contract and 107 voting no.

The new contract was worked out at several meetings with William M. Ellman, a mutually-agreed-upon fact finder.

The increased fringe benefits won by SEIU include:

- one additional holiday, the day before Christmas;
- double time if called in to work on a holiday;
- payment of Blue Cross insurance after a 90-day probationary period, instead of the present one-year period;
- increase in life insurance benefits to $5,000 at $2,500 for full time and part time employees respectively;
- increase in retirement benefits from $3 to $4 per year of service (50 per cent of increase or 50 cents additional for those retired prior to May 1, 1971.)

PTA fair successful

Mr. Pleasant Elementary School's PTA has had a successful fair, proceeds of which will enable them to contract Wayne County Health Department for an additional day of dental service for Mr. Pleasant School children.

Fair chairman Harold Cannon wishes to thank all parents who donated their time and own material to help make this year's fair a success. It was held at the school on May 7.

Approximately 500 people attended between the hours of 12 and 5 p.m.

The most popular activities were the cotton candy machine chaired by Mrs. Linda Merriman and the horse and pony rides supplied by Jay Zachery and his son Mike. Zachery turned over all proceeds from the rides directly to the PTA.

Fashion experts are predicting the return of bright red lipsticks.

Gentlemen:

My husband and I would like to take this opportunity to tell you how pleased we are with our "new home".

With six children and never having a house with enough room, we decided to buy the haunted house, as it was called by everyone. We dreaded the thought of the work involved in scraping and painting the huge monster. Out of curiosity, we mailed an application for a demonstration of Alscot TEDLAR and decided this would be the best investment we could make in regard to remodeling and improvement for resale value of the property.

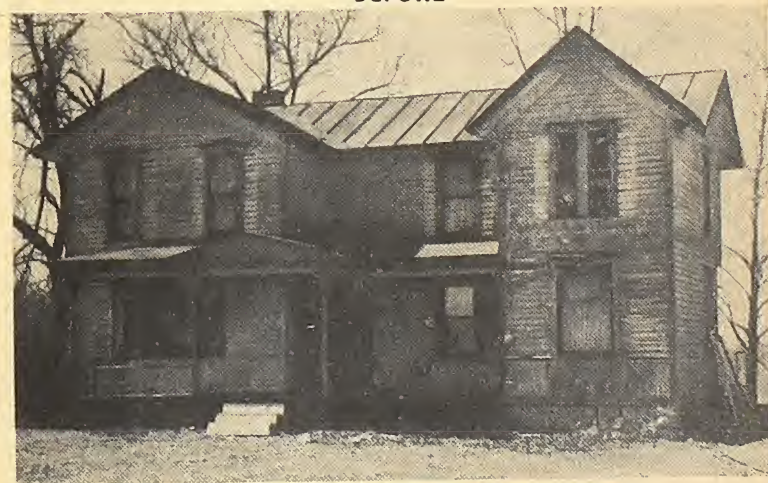

I guess we weren't the only ones surprised with the change in appearance because people would stop their cars, back up, and stare in amazement. It seemed that some actually made special trips by to see the house.

My husband took a piece of the siding to work one day because the men didn't believe that any siding would resist all the things he told them. They used marking pens, glass marking crayons, anything that could make a mark. They even scraped their heels across the surface then held it over fire until it was black to see if it would bubble like paint. Then they took cutting oil and tried to remove the TEDLAR from the aluminum, but it only served to clean the piece of siding of all the dirt and left only a light scorch which resulted from the fire.

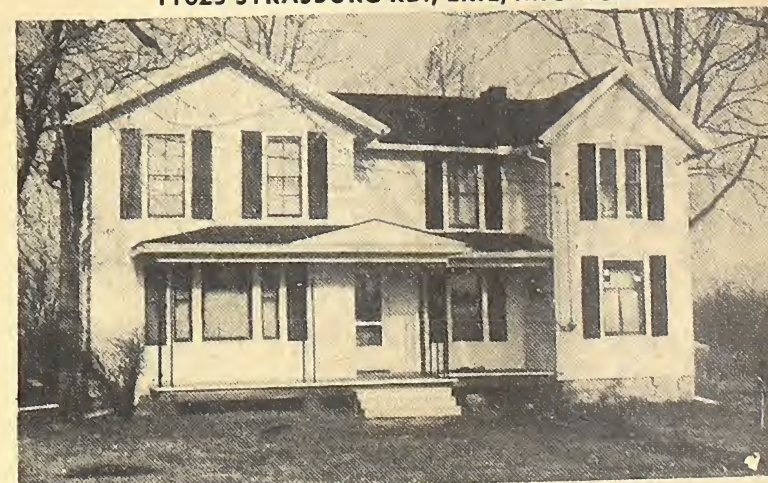

TEDLAR is everything we were told it was and more. Thanks to TEDLAR and perfect workmanship, our haunted house has been transformed into a beautiful home we are very proud of.

Sincerely,
Mr. and Mrs. Newton Anderson
